

February 21 Envisioning our Future
Health and Health Care Perspectives
Mark Wietecha, Chief Executive Officer, Children's Hospital Association

- Reflect on key aspects of the national environment for children's health
- Discuss implications and priorities for the future

Add to Calendar

February 28 Childhood-Onset Systemic Lupus Erythematosus: The Neuro-Hematologic Paradigm (MOC Eligible)
Ekemini Ogbu, MD, Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, Rheumatology, Cincinnati Children's

- Discuss the neuro-hematologic paradigm of childhood-onset systemic lupus erythematosus
- Discuss emerging considerations in the care of patients with childhood-onset systemic lupus erythematosus
- Recognize the neuropsychiatric complications of childhood-onset systemic lupus erythematosus

Add to Calendar

March 7 End of Life Islamic Perspective: Providing Culturally Congruent Care to Muslim Patients and Families During End of Life
Ayman Soliman, MA (Islamic Studies), Staff Chaplain, Cincinnati Children's

- Discuss the Islamic Perspective in death and End Of Life
- Discuss the different factors that impact Muslims' End of Life decisions
- Recognize How to provide a culturally informed care to Muslim Patients and families during EOL

Add to Calendar

March 14 CPC

Clinico Pathologic Case Conference

Libby Ireson, MD, Chief Resident, Cincinnati Children's

Liz Lendrum, MD, Chief Resident, Cincinnati Children's

Rachel Sheridan, MD, Associate Professor, Division of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, Cincinnati Children's

Chidiogo "Diogo" Anyigbo, MD, MPH, Assistant Professor, Divisions of General and Community, Cincinnati Children's

- Describe a complex medical/case within limitations of a resource limited clinical setting
- Develop a broad differential to include uncommon presentation of a common disease or a common presentation of an uncommon disease

Add to Calendar

March 21 My Kid Hates Brushing and I Hate the Dentist: Perinatal, Infant, and Early childhood Oral Health Care

Dr. Patrick Ruck, DDS, Assistant professor, Department of Pediatrics, University of Cincinnati–College of Medicine and Division of Pediatric Dentistry. Board certified by the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry

- Discuss the contemporary American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry (AAPD) guidelines on the management of oral disease, particularly related to prevention
- Use literature to make informed clinical decisions with regards to infant oral health in the prenatal, postnatal and early childhood phases of development
- Recognize the synergistic relationship between oral health and overall childhood well-being

Add to Calendar

March 28 A Clinician's Guide to Cancer Survivorship

Ellen Chang MD, MS, Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, University of Cincinnati College of Medicine, Division of Oncology Cancer and Blood Diseases Institute, Cincinnati Children's

- Discuss the breadth of long-term and late effects that may present in the lifespan of childhood, adolescent, and young adult cancer survivors
- Recognize how to promote health and wellness in the lives of childhood, adolescent, and young adult cancer survivors
- Access cancer survivorship resources

Add to Calendar